

114 Smith Street Summer Hill NSW

Right at the hub of Summer Hill village, this heritage retail property offers distinctive character and standout appeal in this central village location. Surrounded by cosmopolitan restaurants, great coffee shops, boutiques, service businesses and footsteps to rail, this distinctive early 1900s commercial terrace is ideally positioned for business success. The 65sqm interior features a spacious front retail/office/showroom with original 9m-wide leadlight display window for maximum visual impact. Ideal for fashion retail, gallery, homewares or a garden shop, the flexible open layout and high street location makes it equally appealing for health and beauty, professional services or any customer-focused business looking for a showcase presence in the Inner West.
